

For Real

Amel Larrieux

I can run, I can race for hours and hours
And don't stop
I can float I can fly us to the highest Mountain top I can breathe you, I can drink in your laugh
I can... I can live on your smile I can trip and if I can fall into your arms I can Stay there my whole life

I can live
I can love
I can be better with you,
For real
I can hear
I can feel
I can see
I can tell
You are for real

I can stare; I can memorize your face, your hands, your hair
Every part of you I can cut off any loose ends and not even want to keep a few
I can speak to you so honestly I can't even run any game
I can hear a million angels singing in my ears
When I say your name

I can't smile, can't dream like a child
Can't feel safe in this wide world without you
I can't go can't disturb this flow
Can't begin to know what I would do
I can't see, can't find strength to be Rather not be me without you
I can't deal, I can't even feel, without you I'm not real
