

Promises

Amelia Lily

I could play your dirty game
Spin a web around your name
Keep my feelings for myself yea
And I could look into your eyes
Tell you all those pretty lies
But I don't play those games so well

Cause if I take a risk gotta risk it all
I believe that even if I fall
Never ever let love bring me down
I will never turn around

Promises made for fools
But I crushed my heart and burned it
Promise and trusted in you
Cause I was way above

Our promises made of dreams
Still we don't have much time
You still build and tear down it seems
But I'll be around, hear my part

I used to hide beneath my skin
Watch the air, let's dive right in
Scared of shattering my dreams, yea
I've been waiting on the edge
Steady growing through my hair
Finally I dived in deep

Cause if I take a risk gotta risk it all
I believe that even if I fall
Never ever let love bring me down
I will never turn around

Promises made for fools
But I crushed my heart and burned it
Promise and trusted in you
Cause I was way above

Our promises made of dreams
Still we don't have much time
You still build and tear down it seems
But I'll be around, hear my part

Oh no, good intentions
It's sending my heart in the wrong direction
All my good intentions
Always sending my heart in the wrong direction
All those good intentions
People saying girl you better change direction
All my good intentions
I guess I'll better get some salutation

Promises made for fools
But I crushed my heart and burned it
Promise and trusted in you
Cause I was way above

Our promises made of dreams
Still we don't have much time
You still build and tear down it seems
But I'll be around, hear my part

Promises made for fools
But I crushed my heart and burned it
Promise and trusted in you
Cause I was way above

Our promises made of dreams
Still we don't have much time
You still build and tear down it seems
But I'll be around, hear my part

Oh no, good intentions
It's sending my heart in the wrong direction
All my good intentions
Always sending my heart in the wrong direction
