

Cracks Of Tomorrow

Amen

I`m running, running through the cracks of tomorrow
Drowning in the pools of sorrow
Blinded by the dew thats haunted

Did you ever want to be your god
Did you ever want to live their lies
Cos the guns pointed at your head
And you know that the time is right

Cos we want to be you
Its so hard to see you
Cos we want to be you
Its so hard to see you

I`m running, running through the cracks of tomorrow
Sinking in the depths of sorrow
Coming to this lord awaiting
Did you ever want to kill your god
Did you ever want to live your lives
Cos the guns pointed at your head
And you know that the time is right

Cos we want to be you
It sucks them, it stops you
Cos we want to be you
Its so hard to be you
This is the time of suffocation
It is time of humiliation
You will feel running freedom
Running freedom, do it...hey
Did you ever know that its right
And did you ever want live your life
Cos the night are at the head
And we want to be you tonight
To be you, we will, become you
We ran thought the cracks today
We ran through the cracks today
