

Right Here Right Now

American Authors

I wanna sip champagne on a private plane
I wanna scream my name on the top of the Eiffel Tower
On the Eiffel Tower
I wanna hit that blackjack twenty one
I wanna take that money and run

But I won't take that train
I won't catch that flight
If you're not
On that plane
We ain't takin' off tonight

All! The money in the world baby
Don't mean a goddamn thing
Cause you're all that I want
Oh! And even if we're broke baby,
Don't mean a goddamn thing
Cause you're all that I want
Right here! Right now!
Right here! Right now!

I wanna steal the show in Tokyo
I wanna karaoke, bump it a little bit louder
A little bit louder
I wanna sing along with Elton John
In a white limousine rollin' right here, right now-ow

But I won't take that train
I won't catch that flight
If you're not
On that plane
We ain't takin' off tonight

All! The money in the world baby,
Don't mean a goddamn thing
Cause you're all that I want
Oh! And even if we're broke baby,
Don't mean a goddamn thing
Cause you're all that I want
Right here! Right now!
I need you
Oh, I need you
Yeah, I need you

Oh, I wanna
Scream your name I wanna
Make you smile
Let's be
Runaways
Leave it all behind
Will you

Take that train?
Will you
Catch that flight?
If you're on that plane we'll be takin' off tonight

All! The money in the world baby,
Don't mean a goddamn thing
Cause you're all that I want
Oh! And even if we're broke baby,
Don't mean a goddamn thing
Cause you're all that I want

I need you
Oh, I need you
Yeah, I need you
