Gratitude Walks

American Music Club

Why don't you be good for something And draw down the shade On a sign that sat up all night shivering On a sign that sat up all night afraid

Well now chains on the oasis that Leads a man to drink Drunk on the kind of applause That gets louder the lower you sink

Gratitude walks on Sixth Street
Pull it from the air
And they throw it in the blue
And you're spinning under their wheels
Trapped in your room

You're jumpy, you don't want to see You don't want to see them have their fun Slap her face if she should laugh Push him down if he should try and run

Gratitude walks on Sixth Street
Take a number for your big woman
They sold the rules of dream land
In cotton, wool, and cement
Well it's never what you want
It's just the kind of thing that always happens here
Yeah you watch the good old days pass you by Leaving your cupboards bare

Gratitude walks on Sixth Street
