Hello Amsterdam

American Music Club

Hello Amsterdam my name is Fernando Hello Amsterdam I bet you've seen my kind before Another sad tourist with his eyes rolling in his head Another sad tourist who never had a drink before

Hello Amsterdam you didn't like my Waterloo Hello Amsterdam I wish I had something to offer you Tail between my leg I crawl back to the canal All alone with my eyes rolling like the moon

There once was a white elephant that escaped from the zoo Got to the big city and didn't know what to do Had a sticker on his shirt that said, 'Hello my name is unclean' I swear they would have liked us if we'd played Dancing Queen

Hello Amsterdam don't I look cool in my white shirt Hello Amsterdam don't I look hip in my red tie We came from America so you could share in the pride Guilt, greed, and genocide
