

Pale & Skinny Girl

American Music Club

Pale and skinny girl lives in the middle of a mountain
Long golden hair, someone pull her out
She walks across a parking lot with two quarters in her hand
She just wants to take a little break from nothing

Never sees the daylight
Never needs the daylight

Outside the air pocket, there's no one around
She's frozen with terror like an animal
Baby take your first walk out into the wasteland
On every horizon, nothing

Never needs daylight

Never sees the daylight
Never needs daylight
