Royal Cafe

American Music Club

How do you live traveling like this You laugh too much like things used to be funny And now it's all a big state of bliss

We had a little party somewhere outside memphis We hid a six-pack under the seat It's never too late to forget

I can see them all standing around the bar With big crowns of gold on their heads And they're all blind to who you are At the royal cafe

If you keep laughing, I'll forgive you anything Watch the towns pass by like tears After all the scenery is just a blur And the world is just ringing in our ears

Hey princess, This passage suspended between now and then Make no problem don't worry about anything

Hurry hurry make sure there's no time For them to get their claws in us Raise a toast at the end of the line At the royal cafe

But the harder your pain You got to find a way to survive With all your pain You got to find something to keep alive

Don't worry about the magic kingdom They wouldn't even let us near the gate Yeah we're just a couple of anchors Dragging an empty slate

Are you ready to go You'll be happier I know Are you ready to go to the royal cafe
