

Cheer Up

American Steel

Parading through the streets this ain't no ordinary beat I'm on vacation from the east bay When i think i can leave all the grief it just stays inside me look on the bright side, cheer up you & me will fk shit up holiday
i know that you're sick of this town you & me will burn it down wake up sunday morning to a fresh urine stain and a pool of vom it that i guess i hope is mine four hours of sleep cuz of nintendo playing speed freaks i'm penniless in a different place but it's the same old scene
holiday
it's okay and i'm okay everything's going to be all right i'm looking on the bright side
holiday
