Wrath of the Norsemen

Amon Amarth

My head hurts like hell
Can't open my eyes
My clothes are all wet
And I'm freezing right through
Don't know where I am
Or how to get home
My arms they're so numb
And it's hard to get up

My muscles they ache
With every move
I stand on my feet
But my knees feel so weak

Somebody wake me From this horrible dream Somebody save me From this terror I feel

I stumble around on the soft muddy ground I call out the name of the friends I can't find but only the wind And the ravens reply

With every gasp
with every breath smoke fills my lungs and my intestines wrench
With every gasp
the sweet taste of death
The air is full of a thick pungent stench

So comes then rain it's colder than ice I wash off my face and open my eyes And then I see but wish I were blind

They are all dead there's blood everywhere The Norsemen they left only death and despair A stench of flesh that fills the Autumn air

Somebody wake me
From this horrible dream
Somebody save me
From this terror and pain
No one can save me
From this horrible dream
No one can hear me
Jistony Mearth Wrenching screams
