You Are Mine

Another four a.m. Pretending that we're sleeping Everything I try to say All short of how I'm feeling Have you ever hurt so bad You're afraid your tears will drown you (Chorus) Don't let This go Don't turn away I'll love you all my life 'Til the end Your strength Your need Your weakness 'Cause baby you are mine We're both guilty We've both got our reasons Oh if we wanted it It's so far from what we've become Every promise we ever made It serves all the fight we can give it (Repeat Chorus) My hope My everything The place I run

The breath I breathe Yeah

(Repeat Chorus)

Oh baby you are mine
