

Domino

Amy Diamond

You're playing me pieces
You're setting me up
Trying to knock me down
You don't have a reason
That I can believe in
To push me 'round
You're creating a highway of lies one by one
No matter what you say or do
I won't fall like a domino
(no) matter how you sway
the truth
I won't fall like a domino
I won't fall like a
I won't fall like a
I won't fall like a domino
I won't fall like a
I won't fall like a
I won't fall like a domino

You're writing me letters,
You think you know better
What's right and wrong
You think you're perfection
And that my direction
Just doesn't belong
You're making a fool of yourself
You're so far gone
No matter what you say or do
I won't fall like a domino
(no) matter how you sway
the truth
I won't fall like a domino
I won't fall like a
I won't fall like a
I won't fall like a domino
I won't fall like a
I won't fall like a
I won't fall like a domino
You'll reap the things you sow
You'll go down like a domino
Just watch me from below
I won't fall like a
I won't fall like a domino
No matter what you say or do
I won't fall like a domino
(no) matter how you sway
the truth
I won't fall like a
I won't fall like a
I won't fall like a
I won't fall like a
hahahaha

hahahaha

I won't fall like a domino
