

Shooting Star

Amy Diamond

(uuuuuuuuuuuh, uuuhyaay uuhyay)

Sun's bursting in
Through the drapes,
I awake as a new day starts
Feeling I am clear in my mind I'm alive, I'm in love
Feel
It in my heart
The day opens up on the world like a
Dream
And I start to smile

This thing I have
With you's not a feeling,
A sense it is more like a state
Of mind

Wherever you go I will follow
I just
Wanna be where you are
Like a shooting star, you shine
Brightest of them all
Wherever you go I will follow
And it doesn't matter how far
Like a shooting star, you
Shine brightest of them all

Once I was torn, I was
Lost, I felt weak until I found you
You hit me with the Spark of a light in your eyes
Keep me cool and I feel brand
New
Like a breath of fresh air like a natural high
I
Lose sense of time

This thing I have with you's not a
Feeling,
A sense it is more like a state of mind

Wherever you go I will follow
I just wanna be where you
Are
Like a shooting star, you shine brightest of them
All
Wherever you go I will follow
And it doesn't Matter how far
Like a shooting star, you shine brightest of
Them all

Love is just like
Flashes of light
Streaming throughout my heart
