

Find What You're Looking For

Amy Grant

What would they find if they uncovered all my tracks
Of roads I'd snuck down and darkness and never turn back

Well they'd find what they're looking for Secrets and so much more What would they find if they searched for a heart of gold
They'd find sacrifices of time and money never told Yeah they'd find what they're looking for Kindness and so much more

R: Cause there's so much good in the worst of us
So much bad in the best of us
It never makes sense for any of us
To criticize the rest of us
We'll just find what we're looking for We'll find it and so much more

What would I find if I turned back the time on your face
Could I piece together the memories that have made you this way
I might find what I'm looking for Understanding and so much more

R:

Haven't we all learned the best life lessons
By falling and falling down hard
If we're looking for somebody's failures
We won't have to look very far

R:

What would they find if they uncovered all my tracks
