

Unafraid

Amy Grant

Woke up this morning with you in our bed going over and over everything you said
Who talk you how to speak
the words that you say I've always wanted to be talked to that way
Love has made
has made you unafraid

Watching my children finding their way
thru struggles and triumphs and heartbreak
I hope the roads they take
Are making them strong I'll still be on my knees
Long after they're gone
Love has made
Love has made
Love has made
Has made me unafraid

My lovely mother
Is getting on in years
And the way her body's aging brings her girls to tears
The way she trembles with each effort she makes She just says Heaven's getting closer each day
Love has made
Love has made
Love has made
Has made her unafraid

Love could make Love can make Love will make Make you unafraid...
