

Little Revolution

Amy Ray

Got a girl so special
She makes the Fall turn Spring
I say "Everything is dying."
She says "Everything is free."

She's got a real good equation
For the suffering I see
She says "The more you let it in,
Ah, the less it bleeds."

She's a little revolution
In my broken heart.
It's like being born new
When it blows apart.

All the kids say "Ho-hum, "
They think I'm growing old
But I got a little secret
Makes me feel so bold

There's a little Joe Strummer
In my DNA
And a little Lynnee Breedlove
To take me a long way

It's a little revolution
In this heart of mine
And when everything blows up
It's like a brand new rhyme

Bang, bang, bang
It's You
Bang, bang, bang
You and I
Bang, bang, bang
Bang, bang, bang
It's the universe

Got a girl so special
She makes the Fall turn Spring
I say "Everything is changing."
She says "Let it be."

She's a little revolution
In my broken heart
It's like being born new
When it blows apart.
Bang, bang
Bang, bang
Bang, bang
