Amy Shark

I was in a hurry and I never seemed to get him alone
Man, these girls are skinny, pretty, cool to be a bag of bones
Oh, you know that I care
You know why I'm here

I just wanna know you, I just wanna be a part of your life
And all my broken bridges are up again, and everything's fine
Oh, you know that I care
You know why I'm here

So, just keep an eye on me
And don't forget to watch our deleted scenes

Can't believe we're sitting, talking, just under a meter apart
Totally alone, I feel you breaking off a piece of my heart
Oh, you know that I care
You know why I'm here
You know I care
I'll always be here

So, just keep an eye on me
And don't forget to watch our deleted scenes
So, just keep an eye on me
And don't forget to watch our deleted scenes
So, just keep an eye on me
And don't forget to watch our deleted scenes

You're a mystery to me, but I had you first
And I'm a memory, you, and you know how I work

I was in a hurry and I never seemed to get you alone
I was in a hurry and I never seemed to get you alone
