I was in a hurry and I never seemed to get him alone Man, these girls are skinny, pretty, cool to be a bag of bones Oh, you know that I care You know why I'm here

I just wanna know you, I just wanna be a part of your life And all my broken bridges are up again, and everything's fine Oh, you know that I care You know why I'm here

So, just keep an eye on me
And don't forget to watch our deleted scenes

Can't believe we're sitting, talking, just under a meter apart Totally alone, I feel you breaking off a piece of my heart Oh, you know that I care You know why I'm here You know I care I'll always be here

So, just keep an eye on me
And don't forget to watch our deleted scenes
So, just keep an eye on me
And don't forget to watch our deleted scenes
So, just keep an eye on me
And don't forget to watch our deleted scenes

You're a mystery to me, but I had you first And I'm a memory, you, and you know how I work

I was in a hurry and I never seemed to get you alone I was in a hurry and I never seemed to get you alone $\[$
