

Drive You Mad

Amy Shark

Running away
Oh, I felt like this yesterday
And if there's a problem, you'd want to know
Who's in my shadow

Even though you say you won't lie down
I'll ask every night to wear you out
Make me believe one day I'll be great
Keep me in your heart for old times' sake

I need love
I'm enough, I'm enough
I'm enough to drive you mad
In your arms, in your arms
In your arms I need it bad
Believe me

Sleep on the grass
You take my hand, I take you way too fast
You said you feel like there's nothing you can't say
And I felt that yesterday

Even though you say you won't lie down
I'll ask every night to wear you out
Make me believe one day I'll be great
Keep me in your heart for old times' sake

I need love
I'm enough, I'm enough
I'm enough to drive you mad
In your arms, in your arms
In your arms I need it bad
Believe me

Running away
Oh, I felt like this yesterday

Waste all your love
I'm enough, I'm enough
I'm enough to drive you mad
In your arms, in your arms
In your arms I need it bad
Ooh believe me

Enough, I'm enough
I'm enough to drive you mad
I'm enough, I'm enough
I'm enough to drive you mad
Ooh believe me
