

Beautiful Lie

Amy Studt

There is a sadness that they don't see
When you come to me with your sorrows
It's not enough for you to cry
Cause you don't know why it still hurts
I know we've been here a thousand times
With your past full of lies, it's still there
A constant struggle to find yourself
But I know that I can't help at all

You don't have nothing but pride to keep you alive
Yeah, alive, oh yeah
I could say it will be fine, but it's a
Beautiful lie
So please don't leave it all up to me

I see the way they talk at you
They're always to prove that they
Are better
You run away, cause you can't take the way
They make you feel
Another self hate behind locked doors
But then nobody knows something's wrong
You made the cage that you cannot break
I try, but I can't help at all

You don't have nothing but pride to keep you alive
Yeah, alive, oh yeah
I could say it will be fine, but it's a
Beautiful lie
So please don't leave it all up to me

I can feel you,
I can hear you,
I could help you
It's a beautiful lie
Lost in silence
Trapped by violence
A lie, a lie oh yeh
It's a beautiful lie
It's a beautiful lie

You don't have nothing but pride to keep you alive
Yeah, alive, oh yeah
I could say it will be fine, but it's a
Beautiful lie
So please don't leave it all up to me
