

Queen A

Amy Studt

You've got your hair,
You've got your style,
You pout your lips and even smile once in a while.
Girl you look great,
But your a fake,
Haven't you heard that every China Doll could break.

Buzz Buzz little Bee, come and land on me

What would you do,
What would you say,
If you got stung by me today.
what would you do, little Queen B,
If you got stung by me, Queen A.

Queen A

When i look back,
Still see your face,
You smiled and walked away,
And left me in disgrace.
Well here's the deal,
So just sit still,
When all alone is two,
Caress and hold you dear.

Buzz Buzz little Bee, come and land on me

What would you do,
What would you say,
If you got stung by me today.
what would you do, little Queen B,
If you got stung by me, Queen A.

What would you do,
What would you say,
If you got stung by me today.
what would you do, little Queen B,
If you got stung by me, Queen A.

Queen A

Buzz Buzz Little Bee, come and land on me.

What would you do,
What would you say,
If you got stung by me today.
what would you do, little Queen B,
If you got stung by me, Queen A.

What would you do,
What would you say,
If you got stung by me today.
what would you do, little Queen B,

Won't you land on me?
