

Under The Thumb

Amy Studt

Ah Ah Ah Ah . . .

You twisted a nerve, you
Put your hand on your heart and
You said, Hey don't worry
You're fit woman, that's all that counts
And yes

I ignored all the usual signs
Not really knowing quite why
I let you decide, yeh eh
Ain't it funny how
I'm finding out now
It makes me laugh
How I let you have your way and your say
I've got it now
So i'm asking you babe

Did I ever even cross your mind
Cause it's not a game of who is under
The thumb
I think you took me for a ride, ride, ride
But I didn't see,
I, didn't even realize boy that we
Were playing
Games of under the thumb
I think you took me for a ride, ride, ride
What a waste of me

A pro at the sweet talk
Back into your bedroom again like
A fool I went blindly
As soon as I got the invite, yes
I ignored all the the usual signs
Swallowed it down with my pride
Let you decide, yeh eh

Ain't it funny how
I'm finding out now
It makes me laugh how

I let you have your say and your way
I've got it now so I'm asking you baby
Wo wo wo wo

Did I ever even cross your mind
Cause it's not a game of who is under
The thumb
I think you took me for a ride, ride, ride
But I didn't see,
I, didn't even realize boy that we
Were playing

Ohh I thought you were for real

So I kept giving more
Ohh now I want you one your knees
Begging on the floor

Did I ever even cross your mind
The thumb
But I didn't see,
I, didn't even realize boy that we
Were playing
What a waste of me

Did I ever even cross your mind
Cause it's not a game of who is under
The thumb
I think you took me for a ride, ride, ride
But I didn't see,
I, didn't even realize boy that we
Were playing
