

You're Gonna Be Fine

Amy Studt

Constantly, finding ways to fill the empty space.
But still it seems that nothing touches you anymore.
And you're not really sure, which way to turn.

If you feel the sadness sweep you off your feet,
Doubled in the things that you feel.
Don't be ashamed of who you are and don't be afraid to stand your ground.
Cause at the end, end of the day,
You're one step closer to finding your way,
And although you might think you're out of time,
You're gonna be fine.
Cause at the end, end of the day,
You're one step closer,
To finding your way,
And although you might think you're out of time,
You're gonna be fine.

You should know that things aren't always as they seem.
So why still swim in the depths of a tide that's pulling you in?
Makes you think your life has been a waste of time.

Leave the shade and step out into the glare.
Peace of mind awaits you there.
Don't be afraid to stand your ground.
Don't be ashamed of who you are.

Cause at the end, end of the day,
You're one step closer,
To finding your way,
And although you might think you're out of time,
You're gonna be fine.
Cause at the end, end of the day,
You're one step closer to finding your way,
And although you might think you're out of time,
You're gonna be fine.

Never had the help to find your way,
There's nothing you could do or say.
You had to find your own mistakes to learn.
Just look inside of you,
You've got to find your own way through.

Cause at the end, end of the day,
You're one step closer to finding your way,
And although you might think you're out of time,
You're gonna be fine.
Cause at the end, end of the day,
You're one step closer to finding your way,
And although you might think you're out of time,
You're gonna be fine.
