

October Song

Amy Winehouse

Today my bird flew away gone to find her big blue jay Starlight before she took flight
I sung a lullaby of bird land everynight I sang a lullaby every night sang for my Ava every night.

Ava was the morning, now she's gone
she's reborn like Sarah Vaughan
In the sanctuary she has found birds surround her sweet sound and Ava flies in paradise
and Ava flies in paradise

With dread I woke in my bed to shooting pains up in my head Lovebird, my beautiful bird Spoken 'til one day she couldn't be heard She spoke until one day she couldnt be heard she just stopped singing

Ava was the morning, now she's gone
she's reborn like Sarah Vaughan
birds surround her sweet sound and Ava flies in paradise [3x]
