An Pierlé

Watching the entire night
Pictures of you I once took in my mind,
Was it alright?
Broke the rules by telling you
I liked you too much

You didn't wanna see me
Watching you at your best
As you thought you were perfectly
Answering my questioning
The perfect man

Tonight
I'm gonna make millions out of light
I'm gonna pretend I am alright

Eating the entire night
Raw fish
Trained 4 years
To kiss my lips as the main dish
Broke the rules by asking you
What I'd to do next

And I never thought you'd had
Such a small, small face
Though you always taught integrity
I find but disgrace
As you thought you were perfectly
Answering my questioning
The perfect man

Tonight
I'm gonna be questioning your rights
I'm gonna be strong enough to fight
(The wrong reasons why you wanna be in love with me)

Tonight
I'm gonna make millions out of light
I'm gonna pretend I am alright
