

Here I Go Again

Ana Johnsson

I wanna taste the bittersweet
I wanna start a riot in these city streets
I don't wanna live life on repeat
I wanna crash everything in the presidential suit

Here I go again
And I feel so good
Yeah I feel so fine
Like a hurricane
I'm gonna fall again
I'm gonna cross the line
I can't wait another day
I'm ready to be blown away
Here I go again

Always looking for a thrill
I love the chaos when I start a fire drill
I've got so much time to kill
I keep making promises I know I can't fulfill

Some days, frustration is on
Feelings out of place, and all hope is gone
In so many ways, the temptation's too strong
It's all good when it's wrong

I wanna make somebody pay
I wanna speak although
I've got nothing to say
Anything to make my day
I'll run you over
If you're standing in my way
