

Blues for M

Ana Popovic

Of all the things that are changing
You re my certainty
We are just who we were back then
That's my remedy
And I feel your energy
Just like my own
You make me forget
How fast time has flown
All along...

You are my joy my pleasure
You are my dream of home
You are my taste of treasure
You are my strength my stone

You've got that power over me
And baby you know it's true
I know there's nothing that I'm gonna miss
By steady loving you
Now that I see you right here
Part of my live for so long
You are just who I knew before
You are all that and much more

You are my joy my pleasure
You are my dream of home
You are my taste of treasure
You are my strength my stone

I see you stand there in the shadow
Giving me all you can
No one knows better how to make me
Fall in love again

You are my joy my pleasure
You are my dream of home
You are my taste of treasure
You are my strength my stone
