

How Lonely Can a Woman Get

Ana Popovic

It's been a few days, a week or two, I've been Waiting all alone.
Time became my only fear.
He is long gone.
He said he'll think it over, he's got a reason for that,
I suspect the thruth, that's al I need
From the moment we've met.
The only thing that I wonder
How lonely can a woman get?

Sitting here in this room
This guy is wonderin' me.
could it be that he just spoke the lies
And gave mistraken promises to?
Ooh, it's getting late.
I fell so tired
I know what we gotta do
I got to let go this time, ans as well
He got to let go, too.
But the only thing that I wonder
How lonely can a woman get.

You just couldn't fell it baby
You know I got some worries on my mind.
Cause every time that I want you around
I get a lot of broken promises instead.

Ooh, I've been all down, by myself, on those
Cold and lonely nights.
I've been waitin on, damn long, for you to start to realize
What we got, baby you know it's
Way, way hard to find
And now you wanna lose all that
Just in case one day you don't need me by your side.
The only thing that I wonder
How lonely can a woman get.
