

Unconditional

Ana Popovic

Do you remember the time way back in the day when you were just right for me and I was enough for you back when our love use to be Unconditional

When no questions were asked no reasons to doubt but an absolute truth that's what it was all was about back when love use to be Unconditional

With no intention to change the initial thrill
spend hours to inhale the irresistible you back when love used to be Unconditional

Yeah, back when our love used to be Unconditional
