

Stop Me

Anacrusis

I remember the lost lost confusion of innocence
With feelings worn so clean
I wish I could look on this with different eyes
Ignore the blinders reminding me

Older...
Wiser...
Sadder...
Trust has abandoned me lost ago
Stolen by careful dishonesty
I have forgotten how...
I have forgotten how...
I have forgotten how...
How to believe

Stop me from loving to destroy
Stop me from destroying all I love
Stop me from loving to destroy
Stop me

The pain has stripped away all rationale
And left suspicion in it's place
I wish I could cling to this with different arm
And never know the feeling of loss or emptiness lder...

Wiser...
Sadder...
Trust has abandoned me lost ago
Stolen by careful dishonesty
I have forgotten how...
I have forgotten how...
I have forgotten how...
How to believe

Stop me from loving to destroy
Stop me from destroying all I love
Stop me from loving to destroy
Stop me

The death of youth breathes life into this fear
Suffocating confidence
I die each day so I can save myself
I close my eyes, ignore the truth
And try hard to pretend

So afraid...
So afraid...
So afraid...of myself
Stop me...
Stop me...what's wrong with me?
Stop me...what's wrong with me?
Stop me...
