

Assassins

Anarchy Club

Dead by dawn objective
Cold steel ever effective
I am the hand behind the blade
Oh so mercenary
And always very very
A single dot of red displayed

The time has come, before the sun
I am the one, the job is done

Let the game begin
Another day, another sin
Get under your skin
I am the assassin
Wake up, time to die
Truth reflected in your eye
Get under your skin
I am the assassin

Darkness is a lover
when you live undercover
I am the poison in the wine
Secrets never spoken
never again awoken
and the last laugh
is always mine

I come at night, to kill the light
Behind closed doors, blood on the floor

Let the game begin
Another day, another sin
Get under your skin
I am the assassin
Wake up, time to die
Truth reflected in your eye
Get under your skin
I am the assassin

Steel on steel, attacker
I move, but he move's faster
A weapon handed down through time
Made a wrong decision
I feel a cold incision
I see the death tonight is mine

I hesitate to face my fate
I see my chance, but all too late
Among the skilled, kill or be killed
I see the sky, it's time to die

Let the game begin
Another day, another sin
Get under your skin
I am the assassin
Wake up, time to die

Truth reflected in your eye
Get under your skin
I am the assassin
