

Rise And Shine

Anarchy Club

Everybody's talkin'
They ain't saying nothing
Living in a whisper
When they wanted to scream
Free to be a very special carbon copy
Just another gear to grind
Inside the machine

It's not enough to stand up (Rise and Shine)
It's time for us to wake up (Rise and Shine)
There's no more time for fear (Rising)

It's part of the process
So stick to the script
Free to pick your colors
But just stay in the lines
Don't bother changing channels
'Cuz it's all the same shit
Life and liberty homogenized and refined

It's not enough to stand up (Rise and Shine)
It's time for us to wake up (Rise and Shine)
There's no more time for fear (Rising)

Take it all for granted
While your paying for it
By selling out the person
That you wanted to be
Honor is a dead word to
The blindly loyal
There's no more fight for freedom
We gave it away for free

It's not enough to stand up (Rise and Shine)
It's time for us to wake up (Rise and Shine)
There's no more time for fear (Rising)
