

Pieces Of a Dream

Anastacia

I thought I saw you late last night
But it was just a flash of light
An angel passing

But I remember yesterday
Life before you went away
And we were laughing

We had hope
And now it's broken

And I could see it clearly
Once when you were here with me
And now somehow
All that's left are pieces of a dream

And now I'm lost
In restless nights
Just a whisper of the life
That we created

Shadows falling
I am calling

And I could see it clearly
Once when you were here with me
And now somehow
All that's left are pieces of a

The faded photographs
The frames of broken glass
The shattered memories
Time will soon erase

All these souvenirs
Salt from a thousand tears
But when I wake up
You are never there, ho

We had hope
And now it's broken

And I could see it clearly
Once when you were here with me
And now somehow
All that's left are pieces of a

And I could see it clearly
Once when you were here with me
And now somehow
All that's left are pieces of a dream
