

Angelica

Anathema

Where are you tonight?
Wild flower in starlit heaven
Still enchanted in flight
Obsessions lament to freedom

A timeless word, the meanings changed
But I'm still burning in your flames
Incessant, lustral masquerade,
Unengaged, dimlit love didn't taste the same

And I still wonder if you ever wonder the same
And I still wonder...
