

Why did you sleep my darling?.now I'm all alone.
The suns left me too and all I can think about is change.
I think I'm in denial,
This bubble around me bursts so often
The smell of the real world wafts in,
It smells of, decay.

If I pretend I'm not alive,
Then it can't hurt this much,
Then it can't hurt this much.
Oh I won't admit you fked me up!
My eyes are closed with arms wide open,
With arms wide open.
Oh why did you sleep my darling?
Why did you sleep!?

Reach out. Reach out.
I know how it feels before they say, it's over!
Reach out. Reach out.
Our idle minds are power lines.

I'd pull the trigger and light the fire,
Second guessing's not your forte.
Leave me in the dark,
With lights a distant madness.
Oh why did you say those things,
I'm drowning in your words,
They're all I have for safety,
Oh safely sinking.

Why did you sleep my darling?
Now I'm all alone...
Why did you sleep!? Now I'm all alone.

Reach out. Reach out.
We know how it feels before they say, it's over!
Reach out. Reach out.
Our idle minds are power lines.

No this can't happen again.
I can't do this again.
