

This Light

Anavae

Fast asleep in a moving body,
Trying to find the foot prints on the floor
But they just keep on disappearing,
On the ground below,
Time to reflect but the ripples are just a murk within.
These faces start to blend to one
And my wants and needs oh blur to none, blur to none, blur to one.
Transforming into books so easily read
You've got the numbers memorised in your head.
Read it front to back, you're not so ready yet,
The secret details you're so keen to keep.
Gotta read it front to back, you're not so ready yet,
The secret details you're so keen to keep.

So hard to understand, but you should know.
That I've been held to this, so please don't go.

So keep me up and free this light
That keeps me up and on the way to feeling lost.
So keep me up and free this light
That keeps me up and on the way to feeling lost.

Holding on to what I thought was you,
Never was so real...
Have we all felt something we're never meant to feel.
Don't leave it in the dark just tell me where to start.
I've never seen such a fair touch.
Don't leave it in the dark, just tell me where to start,
Could it be all that we are

But I don't know what you came for,
But I still feel like the world is on our side.

So keep me up and free this light
That keeps me up and on the way to feeling lost.
So keep me up and free this light
That keeps me up and on the way to feeling lost.

Impatience gets the better of me,
Don't you walk alone no don't you know?
The silence it gets too much to take.

So keep me up and free this light
That keeps me up and on the way to feeling lost.
So keep me up and free this light
That keeps me up and on the way to feeling lost.
