

Hearing Voices

Anberlin

I feel lost, conflicting thoughts course through Clarity, she's gone, don't know a thing I thought I knew

Everyone wants to see Heaven
But no one wants to say goodbye
Everyone wants to see Heaven
But no one wants to die

Can't escape this feeling (fears are born inside)
Can't escape this feeling (how can I deny?)

I hear voices (voices) in my head
The choices (choices) I can't contend
I hear voices (voices) and they all know your name
They all know your name

Trapped inside a cell that I built myself
Failed so very beating, cold, dark, and lost

Everyone wants to know God
But they're afraid of what they'll find
Everyone wants to know God
But they want to live like he died

Can't escape this feeling (fears are born inside)
Can't escape this feeling (how can I deny?)

I hear voices (voices) in my head
The choices (choices) I can't contend
I hear voices (voices) and they all know your name
They all know your name

I built it all, I built it all around
I heard it call, it doesn't make a sound
Was in my hand and now I see believe
I hear you left, I know you're here with me

Can't escape this feeling (fears are born inside)
When this feelings moves you (how can I deny?)

I hear voices (voices) in my head
Can't stand a ghost when the ghost's not dead
I hear voices (voices) and they all know your name
They all know your name

I hear voices (voices) in my head
The choices (choices) I can't contend
I hear voices (voices) and they all know your name
They all know your name
