

Everybody Here Wants You

Anchor & Braille

29 pearls in your kiss

A singing smile

Coffee smell and lilac skin

Your flame in me

29 pearls in your kiss

A singing smile

Coffee smell and lilac skin

Your flame in me

I'm only here for this moment

I know everybody here wants you

I know everybody here thinks they need you

I'll be waiting right here just to show you

How our love will blow it all away

Such a thing of wonder in this crowd

I'm a stranger in this town

You're free with me

And her eyes locked in downcast love

I sit here proud

Even now you're all dressed in your dreams with me

I'm only here for this moment

I know everybody here wants you

I know everybody here thinks they need you

I'll be waiting right here just to show you

How our love will blow it all away

I know the tears we've cry have dried on yesterday

See if fools

Nothing in my way of my love

Don't you see

Don't you see
