

Broken Illusion

Ancient Bards

We're before the cavern's gates at the entrance of this dark place of loneliness it was dug into the rock by an ancient tribe to imprison their outlaws

On the left side of the cave there's empty spot where the black dragon used to be but on the other side even the white dragon is missing

We must walk into the cave Walking down into the heart of the mountain The cobwebs will hide the waypay attention cause it's easy to get lost

We're inside a labyrinth made of long tunnels that'll take you nowhere bones here and there on the groundoh yes, this one's a risky mission

Down there my ring says follow my lead the thing we're looking for is down there soon we will solve the mystery of the sword here we are this is the place

The boy told the truth
the chest's not in its place he was right the chest is no longer here our fear has become reality now our duty is harder than ever

Let's go my friendswe gotta go there we must reach the dark lord before it's too late we will go together to the perpetrator's den and save the day!
