

Daltor The Dragonhunter

Ancient Bards

You, that fly in the sky
Black Dragon die!
Throw flames from your head trying to kill me you don't know who you are facing blood on your teeth but now let the fight begin!

He is my spirit
he lives in my heart he's guiding my will so I must kill you

Guardiano eterno
Sendor is in you in your heart
I will fight for my lands!

Yes I am only the first the first guardian of the sword in my head darkness is cold Sendor has my control

This is my spirit
my virtue and strength with full devotion
I'll honor my call

Guardiano eterno
Sendor in you in your heart
I will fight for my lands!

I am Daltor the dragonhunter
I will sacrifice all that I have I will brandish my silver sword and I'll kill you
there's no mercy for the betrayers
I am Daltor the dragonhunter!

No! my dragon! what have you done? you can't give in now, it can't be
! he's just a foolish king! but trust me, I will give you all of my strength, there's only one thing left to do: stand up my dragon, spread your wings, fly high reaching the sky and kill him NOW!

I am Daltor the dragonhunter
I will sacrifice all that I have
and I'll kill you
there's no mercy for the betrayers
I am Daltor the dragonhunter!
