

Horrible

Ancient

Hunting for pleasures
Feeding from angels
Smelling salts from godbodies
Hell no hell no

Living like a devil
Casted far in shadow
All I see is windows
I'm waiting waiting

Look in to the moon do you see in the sky,
the devils ride tonight
When you live by their rules and die like the rest, this we Never Never
A wink from the crow when you walk on by, a connection to the horrible
A kiss from the Tongue of a full fledged zombie,
horror it's horrible

When you give in
Your eyes start to lie
Live like the tortured
Babies don't lie screams are horror

When all is lost
And you feel only pain
Live like a stupid king
In swamp full of shame

Horrible x7
How do you! live the lies?
Horrible x7
How do you refuse the wise?
Horrible x7
Do I have to speak in tongues?
Horrible x7

Look in to the moon do you see in the sky,
the devils ride tonight
When you live by their rules and die like the rest,
this we Never Never
A wink from the crow when you walk on by,
connection to the horrible
A kiss from the Tongue of a full fledged zombie,
horror its horrible

When you wake
Things will have changed
I will have died
Only to be reborn

Embraced by the dark
And in league with the sign.
