

The Saracen's Head

And Also The Trees

But where are you going my little girl
Without a candle in this twilight world

Don't bother me now
Don't hold my elbow
Or shake my wrist
I walk to The Saracen's head
Past The Bear,
The Queen's arms
And The Cross Keys

Nice the way the lights glow
On the rainy streets

Where do you take me my little girl
Don't need a light in this midnight world.
