

Aigua

And One

Take a ride to the wide and blue
Where everything's weightless too
Won't image a higher thing on earth

Opened eye in the salt of life
See the streaming friends go by
Little clowns are dancing in the sand

Ooohhh - aigua

When the crying is getting quiet
Remember your voice inside
I will lie forever here with you

Ooohhh - aigua
