

Deliverance

And One

He is lying at the corner
And waiting for helping hands
He is lying at the corner
And waiting for the deliverance
For the deliverance

He had nothing to hope and to say
And the neon lights goes on
Another night for him
Without sorrows
Without hopes

And the night is coming down
And the rain is coming down
He is sitting there
And everybody don't care
