

Love Is A Drug Abuser

And One

The time is over anyway
Don't try to understand
Don't let yourself down
Your bags are packed and everything seems serious to me
Why don't you leave me quietly?
Here comes your countdown
Don't call me sweetheart anymore
Don't look the way you do Don't dare to cry
it's up to you-
Don't let yourself down
And actually there's nothing to regret, I like it raw Its like a game without a score
here comes your countdown

Love is a drug abuser who can't refuse
Game over, we're the loser
let's play confuse
Only you can fool yourself now
You will die without it somehow

Now I'm reading-all the lines are wrong
right after you were gone
Don't let myself down

And its that pretending misery we better to prepare for that cutie at the bar right there here comes her countdown

Love is a drug abuser who can't refuse
(...)
Game over, we're the loser
let's play confuse
Only you can fool yourself now
You will die without it now
