Murder Murder

Your bright light keeps on shining your blue smoke hits my eyes another way of diving so danger has no price

The feeling of your slowness traces out of sight these ever returning spirits who lead me in the night

Murder murder, come inside murder murder, hold me tight

Murder murder, please return murder murder, has to burn touch me while I treat you we're leaving everything behind it seems you're getting higher black toys inside my mind
