

sunday morning
I woke up in the dawn
these arms around me
are probably unkown

this could be the end again no enemys I swore
evil girls are stronger like never before

for an answer
I walked one thousand miles from russia to LA
collecting evil lies

who will be the one
which can make things undone
leaving untrue
I still waiting for you
