

Shice Guy

And One

It's a lovely morning for me
I feel like music and tea
I can't believe
Another email is hurting me
"Hey Steve, I bought a ticket now,
But I don't want to see your cover show"
Oh thank you for letting me know!

This is my daily horror show
This "photographic"-beat lets you people know - jaja, you told me so

What we planned was a poor try - but nothing is better than the original
You say, I'm a shice guy - I hope you will know me before we bo th die

(uh oh, my record company...!)

Now we decided moving the shows - to turning back to And One
I can't believe - this fan was writing me once again
"Hey Steve, I gave my ticket back,
I don't believe the reason for moving the shows"
Oh thank you for letting me know!

This is my daily horror show
This "photographic"-beat lets you people know - jaja, you told
me so

What we planned was a poor try - but nothing is better than the original
You say, I'm a shice guy - I hope you will know me before we bo th die

I think it's time to be honest
This is not a good song at all, ok?
But it really helped me to find a better sleep tonight
And now it would be better to let this song die!
