

Stand The Pain

And One

what you did to me
i dont give up
i dont regret to be the one who kills you tenderly

you found a part of a key i locked the door
i dont prefer to be
a kind of poetry

i`ve got the power to see a story dies
before i start to flee
the only pain comes over me touched by the hands of a lie i dont believe

and even if you die
it is a lie

you will lie
dont tell me i cant stand the pain you kissed that creatures in the rain dont tell me i cant stand the pain
dont tell me

now there`s nothing to know once again
time for you to go
