

Amazing

Andrew Allen

What is this life I stumbled in to?
Where's it gonna take me? Where's it gonna take you?
If life is a journey, then I know where I'll be
By the ocean, oh that valley in the sea...
But I don't think anyone's looking for me, especially you
And if someone is looking, than who?
And it's amazing, how lost inside in you feel,
When you look fine on the outside, you're screaming someone take the wheel
And it's amazing, they think you've got it all,
But it might just be a pebble, that's gonna make you fall
What is this story that tells me I'm fine?
It adds color to my pages, like a sweet little nursery rhyme
If I had the answers, then I know where I'll be,
By the ocean, oh that valley in the sea...
And it's amazing, how lost inside in you feel,
When you look fine on the outside, you're screaming someone take the wheel
And it's amazing, they think you've got it all,
But it might just be a pebble, that's gonna make you
Fall away, like summer fades to grey,
But be honest babe, 'cause it hurts so much to say...
